

Baroness Anne Gibson of Market Rasen

Biography

Lords career

Deputy Speaker 2008-

Party groups

Member: Labour Party National Constitutional Committee 1997-2000, PLP Women's Committee 2000-, Labour Animal Welfare Society 2000-; Chair, BERR: Bullying at Work Partnership Committee 2003-08

Vice Chair of All-Party Group on Latin America

Councils, public bodies

Member: TUC General Council 1989-2000, Equal Opportunities Commission 1991-98, Department of Employment Advisory Group for Older Workers 1993-96, Health and Safety Commission 1996-2000; Chair, EC Committee on Violence at Work 1996-2000; Member: Occupational Health and Safety Commission 1996-2000, EC Committee on Health and Safety 1996-2000, Bilbao Agency 1996-2000; President, Royal Society for Prevention of Accidents (ROSPA) 2004-08; Hon President, Dispensing Doctors Association 2009-

International bodies

ETUC Women's Committee 1977-2000; ICFTU Women's Committee 1977-2000

Political interests

Industrial relations, equality issues, women's issues, health and safety at work, adoption, foreign affairs (especially Latin America)

Countries of interest

China, France, Latin America, Portugal, Spain

Name, style and title

Raised to the peerage as Baroness Gibson of Market Rasen, of Market Rasen in the County of Lincolnshire 2000