

We would like to share exciting news from Happy Child!

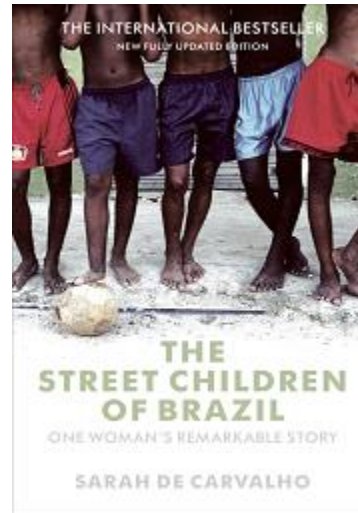

A local Surrey woman, Sarah de Carvalho, our founder and CEO is on the cover of the February issue of Inspire Magazine. She founded Happy Child 16 years ago and to date the charity, based in Leatherhead, has given over 8,000 children in Brazil a life-changing opportunity.

"I realised I was prepared to die, and that moment the fear left me and I felt I had an authority that wasn't my own. This was it; total conviction. I knew I was called."

"The Street Children of Brazil" chronicles the remarkable story of Sarah and Happy Child. Despite being caught up in street gun battles between rival gangs she was not deterred from her mission to rescue children from a life - and death - on the dangerous streets in Brazil. The first edition of Sarah's book is already an international best seller and the new version brings us bang up to date in 2009. What this book brings home is that amongst the squalor and violence of the slums, every street child is an individual with a story to tell and a future if only somebody will listen and offer the opportunity.

Sarah would love to share her personal story of rescuing and restoring street children first hand and to ignite your church with the testimonies of the amazing things God has done through her life.
